TO : DIRECTOR GENERAL (A)
FROM : INCHARGE, EXTERNAL RELATIONS
DATE : FEBRUARY 24, 1993
SUBJECT : REGISTRATION OF LBI

I have submitted the revised and temporary copy of the Constitution which has been amended by me according to the present objectives of the Lajna. It is requested that you should kindly send a copy of this amended copy of the Constitution as well as the following documents to Dr. Bahafzallah for necessary signatures.

1. Resolution: Names of 7 gentlemen should be filled in as the governing body, and should be signed by the General Secretary.

2. List of Office Bearers/Members: Names of 15 gentlemen (7 Governing Body and 8 members) should be filled in, and signed by the Chairman, President and the General Secretary.

It was advised by the Registration Office that our list must have some Pakistani's as Members and Office Bearers. I was informed that most of the societies that are registered with the registration office are of Pakistan origin. There is no law which suggests that foreigners cannot register themselves in a Pakistani Society. But due to the prevailing situation pertaining to some foreigners with incomplete immigration documents, some restrictions can be imposed in near future.

Presently, you have two Pakistanis from your senior staff at your Peshawar office who can be included in the list. Dr. Muhammed Sharif of the Chamkani Hospital and myself.

All the three documents (RESOLUTION & LIST OF OFFICE BEARERS) should be faxed to Dr. Bahafzallah. After selecting the office bearers/members, Dr. Bahafzallah should fax the same documents to us for onward transmission to the registration office. There is no need for the original documents at this stage. The Peshawar office can certify these documents.
